

Athens University Museum Description

It contains the text of the Gospels: The Gospel of Matthew, the Gospel of Mark and the Gospel of Luke (to 24–26). Material: parchment Miniscule legible writing Dimensions: 22×15,5 cm. Leaves:163 (mechanical numbering), 23 volumes Bookbinding: contemporary leather Decoration: decorative titling and end of text designs. Condition: significant damage especially at the beginning of manuscript Description has can be found at: a) Spyridon Lambros, see “Catalogue of the codices in Athenian libraries except the National Library: Codices of the Sp. P. Lambros’ Library”, Neos Hellinonimion 17/1 (1923) 82-91, pp.84-85. b) G. Th. Zoras, see G. Th. Zoras – F.K. Bouboulides (eds.), “Catalogue of manuscript codices of the Centre for Byzantine and Modern Greek Philology of the University of Athens”, Athens 1964, pages 13-15. Provenance: Centre for Byzantine and Modern Greek Philology of the University of Athens, Spyridon Lambros Collection.

Description by: Dr Konstantinos Belezos, Ass. Professor of New Testament's Introduction, Exegesis and Hermeneutics, School of Theology, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens