⁵ The sixth line of text is missing the final chunk of papyrus, which had at least a letter on it.

⁶ Includes folio 3 and folio 4. ff. 3–4: label upside down for l. 4; both in same glass. Ink is incorrect in labeling which is which folio; corrected in pencil.

⁷ Compared to Kenyon some of the fiber has gone missing. In particular, there is a lacuna on the left side c. 6.5 cm down.

⁸ The writing on the plate has the text reversed from what actually appears on the the papyrus (calls the front Luke 6.45–7.7 when it should be Luke 6.31–41). Kenyon has the correct text description.

⁹ ff. 18 & 19 in same plate.
